Following is the list you requested. For various reasons there are more names on this list than there are years of FSNE existence:

John McMullen	Miami Herald
Earl Bowden	Pensacola News Journal
James Clendinen	Tampa Tribune
John Walters	Jacksonville Times Union
Ed Johnson	Gainesville Sun
Larry Jinks	Miami Herald
Bob Stiff	St. Petersburg Evening Independent
Stan Roberts	Orlando Sentinel
Steve Pappas	Daytona Beach News Journal
Waldo Profitt	Sarasota Herald Tribune
Paul Hogan	The Tampa Tribune
Pete Weitzel	Miami Herald
Andy Barnes	St. Petersburg Times
Skip Perez	Lakeland Ledger

VICE PRESIDENT AND EDITOR

Skip:

I suppose it means little, but Jim Clendinen's roots of FSNE==as fine and nostalgic as it was--overlooked the fact that John McMullan departed for Philadelphia soon after the organization's beginning and I actually served as first president.

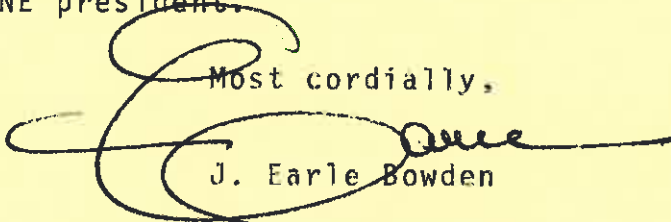

Fortunately or unfortunately, Bob Haiman, striving for a toe-to-neck (not necessarily red) balance on the charter ticket, pushed me into the George Bush role at the Gainesville organizational meeting. I simply moved up.

Then, I think, Clendinen followed me at the throne.

Reading Jim's memories grayed me even more, since it seems a generation ago when we tired of the old APAF and set about building the fine society that you serve as Skipper today.

Best of everything as FSNE president.

Most cordially,

J. Earle Bowden
